READ THE TEACHING

Macky has just started releasing the wrong prisoner. Macky is so sure he is doing the right thing. He believes he is great – and he also believes everyone else who tells him he is great! But it very much looks like he might be making a mistake here.

Paul and Barnabas on the other hand, in today's Bible story, did not make a fuss about the work they did for God, even though it included some amazing things (like healing a man who had never been able to walk).

In fact they were very humble about what they did, and considered themselves to be just like other people.

What does Humble mean do you think?

( maybe doing things in a humble quiet way because they really want to help other people (not because they want to become famous or benefit themselves in some other way).

God did amazing things in and through Paul and Barnabas and made sure everyone knew it was God who healed the man not them. They pointed others to God as he worked in and through them. Paul and Barnabas were truly humble. They understood that God was the most important person in their lives, and that if they concentrate on this instead of themselves, God could do amazing things through

I think we can forget to give God the glory and the thanks for the amazing things he does in and though us. I know that God is at work in your life and points other people to him as he works.

TALK ABOUT THE QUESTIONS

Question 1

What amazing things has God done for you or your family?

Question 2

Can you point or find something that you think is amazing? (Why not play a game of pictinary)

Question 3

What are you good at or what talents and gifts has God given you? Thank God for the things he has given you and ask him to help you use them for him. ( I know you are good at lots of things but if you can not think of anything ask your grown up what they think! )
